

FEBRUARY 5, 1833.

Read, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House to which the said bill is committed.

Mr. EDWARD EVERETT, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, submitted the following; which, when the bill (H. R. No. 690) "making appropriations for the support of the Civil and Diplomatic expenses for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three," shall be taken up for consideration, he will move as

AMENDMENTS.

Add to the bill—

1 To enable the Secretary of State to employ additional clerks
2 for the purpose of arranging the papers and documents in the 3 Department of State, and preparing an index for the same, six 4 thousand dollars.

5 To satisfy a claim presented by his Majesty, the King of 6 Sweden, on account of injuries sustained by subjects of the 7 said Government in the island of St. Bartholomews, by an il-
8 legal act of the commanding officer of the United States' sloop
9 of war Erie, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twen-10 ty-three, five thousand six hundred and sixty-six dollars and 11 sixty-six cents.

12 To Washington Irving, late Secretary of Legation at Lon-
13 don, on account of his services as Charge d'Affaires for the pe-
14 riod of three months and five days, one thousand one hundred 15 and eighty-seven dollars and fifty cents.

16 To John Randolph Clay, Secretary of Legation at St. Pe-
17 tersburg, as an outfit, and on account of his services as Charge
18 d'Affaires one year seven months and six days, seven thousand
19 two hundred dollars.

20 To Cyrenius Hall, a resident of Upper Canada, the sum of 21 five thousand three hundred dollars, (being the value of a 22 schooner, the property of the said Hall, seized and libelled by 23 the collector of the port of Venice, in Sandusky bay, in the year
24 eighteen hundred and seventeen, which was ordered by a decree
25 of the district court of Ohio to be restored, but which, previous-26 ly to said decree, had been lost,) with interest on the said sum 27 of five thousand three hundred dollars from the tenth day of 28 August, in the year eighteen hundred and seventeen, till the 29 eighth day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-one; and 30 with further interest on the said sum from the twenty-eighth
31 day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, till paid.

32 To the clerk employed in the Department of State as a
33 translator of foreign languages, in addition to the salary now
34 provided by law, six hundred dollars per annum.

35 To the clerk employed in the Department of State as 36 Agent of Accounts, in addition to the salary now provided by 37 law, three hundred dollars per annum.